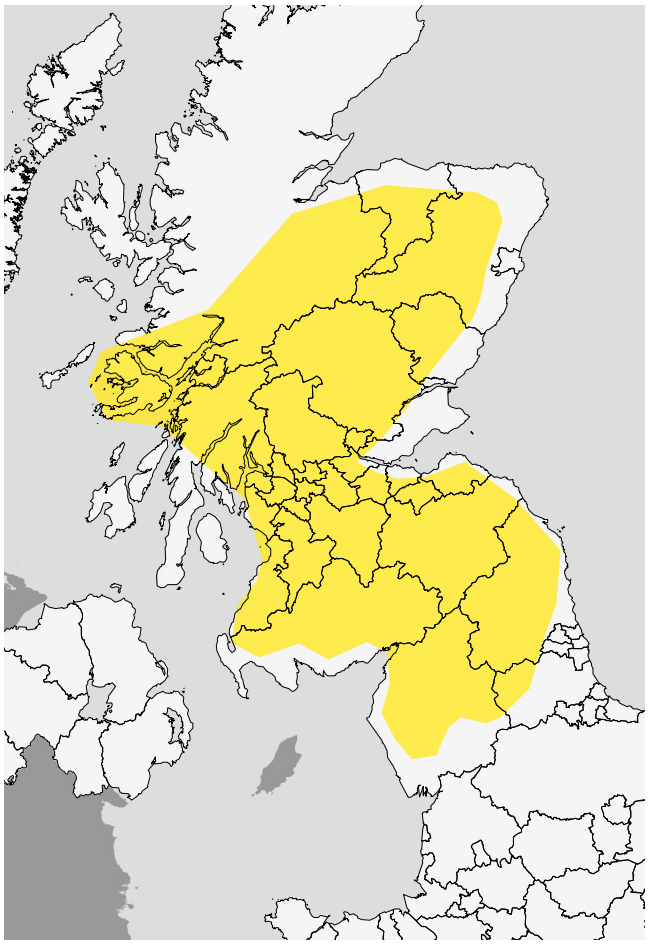
Yellow warning
Snow

Between
04:00 Sat 16 Mar 2019 and
21:00 Sat 16 Mar 2019



A spell of rain and snow is expected, with disruptive snow mainly over higher ground.

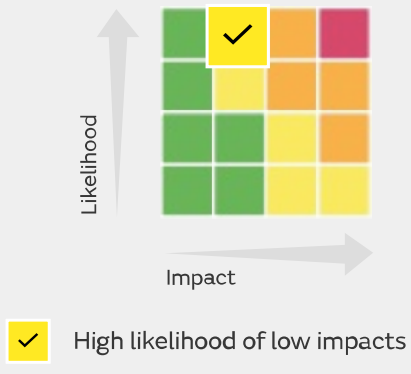
What to expect

- Some roads and railways affected with longer journey times

Further details

A developing area of low pressure will bring snow in places across the far north of England and parts of Scotland on Saturday. Snow will mostly turn to rain over England during the morning and probably close to the border but will last for longer over other parts of Scotland.

A mix of rain and snow is likely at lower levels, with no more than a transient slushy covering on roads below about 100-200m - as, for example, in much of the Central Lowlands.



✓ High likelihood of low impacts

Yellow warning
Snow

Between
04:00 Sat 16 Mar 2019 and
21:00 Sat 16 Mar 2019

Further Details (continued)

Around 2-6 cm of snow is more likely above 200-300m elevation, with perhaps 10 cm above 400 m.

Reason for update

The warning area has been pulled northwards, out of parts of northern England but also pulled towards the Great Glen. Northern Ireland will have a separate combined rain/snow warning.
